The official returns of the Ohio Election are at last received. They stand as follows:

The news brought by the Arabia contains nothing of great moment from the seat of war. The bombardment of Sevastopol commenced on the 13th ult. with 200 pieces of heavy artillery, and was expected to be brought to a crisis in three or four days. The Cunard steamer of next week will probably bring the particulars of the storming of the town. The Russian reenforcements have not yet been heard of, nor are there any indications as to when they will be on the spot, but unless the siege is at once pressed to a sucessful conclusion, the allies will have to fight another battle in the field before they can become masters of the town. The tand defenses, however, appear to be much more imperfect than we had previously supposed. It is inconceivable that the Russians should be so ill-prepared to defend a place of such importance, not merely as regards the numerical force of their armies in the Crimea, but also in respect of their fortifications. From the Danube we hear that the Russians have reëntered the Dobrodja. In Germany a good deal of excitement is said to exist as to an appre hended rupture between Austria and Prussia; the danger of such a rupture is small. The French fleet has returned from the Baltic, and most of the English ships will come home also. Alas, with what a scarcity of laurels compared to the boasts with which they set out! From the various countries of the European continent there is no news of moment. From Japan we hear of the friezdly reception of the Lady Pierce, a clipper yacht, belonging to Silas E. Burroughs of San Francisco. An account of this affair is given in our columns this morning.

Another terrible railroad disaster occurred on Wednesday night. The westward train on the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad was smashed up by the breaking of one of the axles of the locometive, and thirty or forty passengers badly injured, many of whom are probably dead. The few particulars that have reached us are under the Telegraphic head.

We print in another column the convention entered into between the United States and Russia, perpetuating the principle of the rights of neutrals at sea. It provides that free ships make free goods, and that the property of neutrals on board enemy's vessels is not subject to confisca tion, unless contraband of war.

The political advertisements will be found on our Third Page.

THE ISSUE OF NEXT TUESDAY.

That the State of New-York desires to record her emphatic condemnation of the Nebraska Iniquity, along with that of CONNECTICUT, RHODE ISLAND, IOWA, MAINE, PENNSYLVANIA, OHIO, and Indiana, no one can seriously doubt. Her traditions, convictions, interests, sympathies, all combine to assure a more decided expression of Anti-Douglas sentiment from this State than from any of the above-named, except, perhaps, Ohio. How is it, then, that some profess to cherish doubts as to the issue of our approaching election By what sorcery is New-York to be incited to stultify herself, and arrest the wheels of a great moral revolution?

The Rum Power is the first great instrumentality relied on by the apostles of darkness. It has great wealth; and, in the general paralysis and prostration of other interests, is reaping large profits. We passed a distillery day before yesterday, which was said by those who knew, to be clearing two hundred dollars per day for its proprieter. He has been called a Whig, but is now doing his utmost for Seymour-that is, for his own $200 per day. It would be a small matter for him to give one week's profits of his distillery -that is, $1,200-to help reflect the vetoer of the Prehibitory Law. There are some hundreds (but not many of them Whigs) who are in a similar category, as importers, wholesalers, or manufacturers of Wines, Ales, or Liquors, and they are, generally, working hard to reclect their protector, regardless of Polities, or any thing else but their own gains. Behind them range fifteen or twenty thousand retailers-grocers, saloon-keepers, porter house men, &c. - who are pulling zealously in the same traces. These, together, form a strong array: but it must be considered that nine-tenths of them always were of the Sham Democracy, and would have worked against the Whig State Ticket any how-not, indeed, so earnestly nor so efficiently as now, but with habitual energy and alacrity. We think Myron H. Clark cannot lose more than Twenty Thousand votes on the Rum issue, and these will be made up to him by the Thousand majority, would naturally secure a similar result this year, saying nothing of the powerful influence of the Nebracks question.

How, then, is it possible for men to deceive themselves into the notion that the Whig ticket can be beaten? The "Know-Nothing" ruse is the second reliance of the Douglasites. Their most unscrupulous oracle The Buffalo Commercial -calculates that Ullmann will receive a little over One Handred Thousand votes-that these will be mainly taken from the Whig candidate-and that Seynour (not Ullmann, by any means,) will thereby be elected. Let us coasider this:

The whole number of persons nominally be longing to the various Knew Nothing Lodges throughout our State, including an estimate of some Ten Thousand from Lodges which had made no return, was officially computed, at the time of their late "Grand Council" in this City, at something less than Eighty Thousand. We have reason to believe this considerably exaggerated, if referring to the number at any time adhering to the Order, while thousands who have been in duced to join it protest against the juggle which made Ulimann their candidate, and will vote as their own understandings and consciences, and not as any midnight cabal, shall dictate. True, Ullmann will receive some votes from bitter Silver Grays who have not enrolled themselves as Know Nothings; but we are confident that the entire vote for him cannot exceed Fifty, or, at the utmost, Sixty Thousand. The Nebraska compatriots of Scroggs, Saunders and Staffer. who have been most active in luring Whigs into this trap, will come up missing on the Utlmana roll-call at the ballot-box, and will cast their votes, as they have done their work, for Seymour. Their service inside of the Lodges will not be needed by him after Monday evening.

And yet there are men of decent intelligence who will be swindled into giving their votes for Ullmann, who are heartily Anti-Douglas and Anti-Rum, and mean to vote accordingly. The wire workers whisper to them that Ullmann is as much of their way of thinking as Clark, and thus dupe them into aiding the triumph of Seymour, Slavery and Liquor! Surely, there should be some punishment for deceit so gross and so malevolent.

But it cannot prevail. The Good Cause will lose some thousands of votes, through the combined power of Know-Nothing intrigue and Liquor corruption; but there will be enough without these to elect MYRON H. CLARK by a handsome majority. His vote will be second in nearly or quite every County where it is not first, and will be first in more than half the State, with Seymour and Bronson alternately running next to him. Thus in Broome, Schoharie, &c., the contest is between Clark and Bronson; in Cayags, Oswego, &c., between Clark and Seymour while no one can name more than three Counties in which Clark will not be either first or second. In the Counties West of Cayuga Lake, his vote will very nearly, if not quite, equal that of all his antagonists combined. Champions of Temperance and Freedom! let no effort be relaxed till next Tuesday evening, and yours will be a sweeping, benignant triumph !

WOOD PROVED A KNOW-NOTHING. Col. Michael Doheny makes use of our column this morning to protest his indifference in the Mayoralty election, but at the same time avowe his conviction that all honest men, without dis tinction of party, ought to vote for Fernando Wood, on the ground that he is the most injured of men. Col. Doheny has, or affects to have, perfect confidence in Wood's affirmation that he does not belong to the Know-Nothings, and thinks that all who affirm the contrary are much more likely to lie upon the subject than Wood himself. This is all well enough, as far as Col. Doheny is concerned; but we can assure the public that we have the evidence of many men, who do not differ from Wood merely in the respect that their word was never doubted, and who, though members of this secret society, are not willing to allo Mr. Wood's astounding falsehood-and perjury, if he has made an affidavit, as Mr. Doheny saysto pass unquestioned. We are privately assured by several gentlemen of this character, that Mr. Wood was and is a member of the order of Know-Nothings, and has beld his seat in its Executive Council. To the same purport we have the testiwhich we have seen, duly signed and attested, and which we print, only leaving blank the names of the persons by whom it is signed, their positions as members of the order appearing to them inconsistent with the publication of their names as such:

"The undersigned, being duly sworn, do severally swear and declare, that they are personally acquaint-ed with the Hon. Fernando Wood, and have been so equainted for some time past, and of our own know ledge, do say that he has been for some months past a member of an order, known and designated as Know-Nothings," and, furthermore, that he was a member of the Executive Council of the same order which made the nomination for Mayor, at its recent session, and was himself a candidate for that position, and his friends personally solicited our votes and sup port for that office for bim, but failed to receive a ufficient number of votes to effect the purpose. - -, G. C., 2d Ward, City N. Y.

-. -, Member Com. 4th Ward Council. -, 9th Ward. -, 9th Ward. Sworn to before me, this 2d day of November,

-, Com. of Deeds. -I any gentleman doubts the existence of such an affidavit, we shall be happy to put him in the way of arriving at a full conviction in the premises,-always excepting Col. Michael Doheny, whose mind is apparently so constituted as to be beyond conviction,) and who, if Mr. Wood were proved to be "the greatest scoundrel living," would, doubtless, still think every new falsehood nothing but the plain truth, and, at each new piece of baseness, would still be of opinion, that

Wood "ought to receive the vote of every man in the City."

WOOD IN 1851. On the 7th of November, 1851, the Grand Jury of this City and County found a bill of indictment sgainst Fernando Wood, now candidate for Mayor, for alleged fraudulent transactions growing out of the business of a partnership between him and Edward E. Marvine. These alleged frauds were of a serious nature, and very numerous, embracing a forged bill of sale, forged latters and papers, and forged or altered bills of accounts relating to the partnership. A civil suit, founded on the same trabsactions, was pending, and still is pending, before referees, in which the testi mony is very voluminous, and we shall take a look at it as soon as we can conveniently. But the indictsupport of the Free Democracy alone, while the ment was summarily disposed of by the then Refeud between the Hards and the Softs, which last corder, F.A. Tallmadge. Wood pleaded the Stat-ute of Limitations! The Revised Statutes enact year elected the Whig State Ticket by Sixty that an offense is not indictable after the lapse of three years from its commission. It so happened, in this case, that the alleged offense, upon which the indictment was found, was committed on the 7th day of November, 1848 and that the indictment was found and filed in Court on the seventh day of November, 1851. The Court decided that the day on which the offense was committed should included, and thus three years had elapsed. Thus the decision was in favor of quashing the indictment. It is true that the first fraudulent transaction alleged was on the seventh of November, 1848, but subsequent frauds were alleged, running through several days.

The very fact of pleading the Statute of Limitations in a charge of fraud does not strike us favor ably. An honest man, having done no act of a criminal nature, would not be likely to make such a plea. But that such a plea was set up in behalf of Mr. Wood, and sustained by the Recorder, is beyond doubt. The case is summarily reported in The New-York Legal Observer, Vol. X., for 1852, (p. 61-63,) to which periodical we refer all who feel an interest in the matter. We are assured that a check of $700, drawn by Mr. Wood in favor of the Recorder who made the decision, passed through a broker's hands and was cashed in bank about the same time; but that, of course, had no reference to the decision.

G. H. ANDREWS-T. R. WHITNEY. One year ago, Thomas R. Whitney, the Editor of a Sunday paper of very moderate force and no political character, became a candidate for the State Senate, and, through the secretly exercised power of the Order of United Americans, to which he belongs, secured the Whig nomination, and thus the election. He was very little known to the Whig voters, and was elected without much inquiry or consideration. He has, therefore, served one year in the Senate, where he has distinguished himself only by the littleness as well as bigotry of his Nativism.

Elated by his success, he this year aspired to a seat in Congress, and, by the aid of the "Know Nothing" machinery, almost, but not quite, secured the Whig nomination. GEORGE H ANDREWS, of Williamsburgh, was preferred.

Now Mr. Thomas R. Whitney, holding one good office at the hands of the Whig party, is a boiting candidate for another, and doing his utmost to defeat the regular Whig candidate. More than this-he is doing his best to defeat the Whig State ticket, by drawing off votes upon Ullmann, Scroggips & Co.

Is this honorable? Is it decent? He is the candidate of the "Know-Nothings," and has probably a right to their support. But he is not the Whig candidate, and has no claim to a single Whig vote. On the contrary, he is lending what little power and influence he may have to defeat the Whig candidate for Congress and the Whig State ticket. He calls on Whigs to support him as the Whig candidate, while he is nightly plotting in his secret cabal to prostrate the Waig party and defeat its candidates from Governor down! Is not this beyond endurance ?

Electors of the Vth District who love open, manly dealing and fair play, do not fail to vote, and ask your friends to vote, for George H. An-DREWS for Congress!

KINGS COUNTY.

We never lived in Brooklyn, but we envy our fellow-citizens who do live there the privilege of easting a vote for GEORGE HALL for Mayor and E. D. CULVER for City Judge. There are other good men on the local ticket, but none other that we know to be capable and worthy so thoroughly as we do these. GEORGE HALL has stood up against Rum and Rowdyism in Brooklyn when to do so was to brave perpetual exile from office and popularity; he is a man tried in the furnace and found to be pure gold. He is a worker, has spent almost his whole life in Brooklyn, though he was born in this City, and understands the duties of the Mayoralty better than almost any other man can. His election will cause an immediate migration of secondrels and ruffians from Brooklyn to parts unknown. E. D. CULVER is a man of the same stamp, and has labored effectively in the Temperance cause for many years. His election will afford a fresh evidence that Christian principle and moral worth do not necessarily exclade a capable citizen from office in this country.

Mr. STRANAHAN, the Whig candidate for Congress in (old) Brooklyn, is less widely known; but we know him as upright, intelligent and worthy, and thoroughly reliable on the overruling topic of Slavery Extension. He will be found walking fully up to the line of duty in the next Congress.

Nobody fears, nor pretends to fear, that there will be too little liquor drank in case the Traffic is outlawed. On the contrary, the Rum party insist that more will be drank than is at present.

Nobody fears, nor seriously pretends to fear, that Liquor cannot be had under a Prohibitory Law whenever it shall be really needed. On the contrary, the Law makes express provision for agents to sell Liquor in all cases where there is genuine need of it. Nobody really fears that any quiet, private dwelling will ever be broken into by officers or others in search of contraband Liquor, though lying harangues and handbills continually assert the contrary. The Law of Prohibition has now been in force three years in Maine, yet to this hour there is no single instance of even pretended violation of the sacredness of the domicil by virtue of any process issued under it by friends of Prohibition. Here are more people than this City contains, who have lived for three years under a Prohibitory Law, with all the provisions for search and seizure embodied in our proposed act, yet no one of them has ever been annoyed by a vexatious prosecution and search, unless it were a solitary prosecution set on foot by a Rummy against a Temperance man, to gratify a personal spite. Even of such prosecutions, we have heard nothing for eighteen months past. In fact, the danger lies entirely the other waythat prosecutions and searches will be forborne when they should be undertaken, and not that they will be attempted where they should be forborne. Yet the bugaboo clamor against this execrated Right of Search-which is just such as our laws now provide for in cases of suspected counterfeiting, gambling, &c .- is about all the capital now left to the partisans of Seymour and Bronson.

No man really believes that riot or bloodshed would result from the passage and enforcement of a Law of Prohibition. On the contrary, we have abundant testimony, in the experience of six of our sister States, together containing nearly Three Millions of inhabitants, that Prohibition, instead of inciting violence and bloodshed, strikingly diminishes crime of all kinds, but especially crimes of violence. For the last three months, the Liquor Traffic has for the first time been outlawed in Connecticut, yet that State was never more tranquil, more law-abiding, more exempt from violence and crime, than during these months. Who believes that it will be otherwise here ! How can there be more violence, crime and murder under a Prohibitory Law than under the present Rum-licensing system !

The case lies in a nut-shell: All do know that it would be better for all that the Rum Traffic should be abolished, but the Liquor men vainly imagine that their special pecuniary interest is promoted by keeping the business going as at present, and they are pouring out their money to buy a verdict contrary to the Popular Conviction, to Justice, Morality and the Public Good. Can they buy it? Shall the money they have wrung without equivalent from the debauched and infatuated enable them by its lavish expenditure to protract if not perpetuate the evil and crime of which their Traffic is the source ! Answer at the Polls !

THE PLUNDERERS OF OUR CITY.

Document No. 55, being a communication from our City's Controller of the Evidence taken before the Recorder relating to the late abuses in our City Government, is now ready for delivery gratis to citizens at the Controller's office, and at that of the Clerk of the Board of Aldermen. It is one of the most complete, lucid and instructive exposures of official corruption and malversation ever submited to a plundered people. We exhort all who have leisure to procure and read it. And we urge citizens of the VIIth, IXth and XIIIth Wards especially, to procure it and scrutenize certain passages, as follows:

As to Ex-Aid. Tweed (now running again in the VIIth Ward,) pages 1,243-4, 1333-4, 1340.

As to Ald. Brisley, (now up again in the IXth,) pages 1,306, 1,390.

As to A. J. Berry (now running for Congress in the Vth Cong. District.) pages 1,299, 1,302-5, 1,311. Electors who do not mean to choose corrupt, dishonest magistrates, take nothing at secondhand, but look into official documents, read the evidence, and judge for yourselves!

BEWARE OF TREACHERY!

There are probably a few Election Districts in which Rum and Know-Nothingiam have taken away those who would naturally be relied on to procure and distribute the regular Whig ticket. The friends of CLARK and RAYMOND must everywhere be prepared for this defection, and ready to obviate its natural effects.

Reader! do you know that the right ballots for your ewn Election District are already in good hands, and will be on the ground when the poll opens ! If you don't know this, let not this day's sun go down on your ignorance, but see where the ballots are to be had, and who will be handing them out at the pell when it opens. Now is the time to guard against surprises and disasters.

It is positively stated that both the Whig and Democratic Know-Nothings have arranged to steal all the tickets on the night before the election, so that on the morning of election none but Know-Nothing tickets can be had.

LOOK OUT YOR TRICKS!-An infinite variety of spurious ballots have already been fabricated, con taining all manner of mis-spelled names, "Jr." added where it does not belong, and omitted where it does, candidates for one office made candidates for another by transposition, &c., &c. Let no man vote a ballot which he has not carefully read and compared with the ticket he wishes to vote, as printed where its accuracy may be relied on.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY-Upper District.-DAN-IEL HUNT., Jr., who was nominated for Assembly by the regular Whig Convention, has decided to run but will not commit himself on the question of Liquor Prohibition. Amos BARCOCK is the Temperance candidate, and will be vigorously supported by the advo-cates of Prohibition, and is very likely to be elected, as there are two Hard candidates in the field, and the Softs mean to run another, if they can get one to stand. Mr. BARCOCK is a true man, and will vote right all through.

GREAT FIRE AT LOCKPORT-LOSS $200,000. LOCKFORT Thursday, Nov. 2-Midnight. The fire broke out about 8 o'clock this evening the oid Jennings Hotel, on Main-st., west of the Tremont House, and a high wind prevailing at the time, in less than twenty minutes that building and the Tremont House were enveloped in flames.

The fire rapidly spread from these buildings to Boughton's block and the row of buildings to and including Marvin's block on the east, and to the Congregational and Methodist churches on the north-east, consuming the entire square between. From the Congregational church it spread to the dwellings north, consuming all up to the alley which separated them from the new Presbyterian church, which was only saved by the most strenuous exertions. From the Methodist church the fire extended to the two brick stores of Wilson and Murphy on the east, and to the new engine house No. 3 on the north. Here, at this writing, there is a prospect of arrest-ng the pregress of the flames, a building having been orn down with that view. A small frame building on Ontario-st., near Lock st., took fire from the sparks, and was destroyed, together with an old two-story building adjoining. The total loss will not be less than $200,000

The wind has been blowing a perfect hurricane. Soon after the fire broke out, a telegraph dispatch was sent to Buffalo for assistance, and two engine companies, with their machines, a hook and ladder company, and a hose company, have just arrived.

The fire is now materially checked.

A man named Henry Randall fell from Lusk's Hotel, and was seriously injured. It is also rumored that a man and woman were burned to death in the Tremont House. The fire originated from the explosion of a camphene lamp in one of the rooms in the Jennings House. SECOND DISPATCH. LOCKPORT, Friday, Nov. 3, 1854.

In addition to the buildings enumerated above, the following are also in ruins: Jackson's boarding-house, Judge Gardner's offices, Pamlee's coffee-house, Saf ford's block, and numerous frame buildings. The fire was effectually checked about midnight.

FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT ON THE ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD.

CRICACO, Ill., Friday, November 3, 1854.

The passenger-train for Rock Island, which left Chicago at 11 o'clock on Wednesday night, met with a most frightful accident, from the breaking of an axletree of the engine, when near the Minoka station the result, it is said, of running over a horse upon the track. The engine and a portion or all of the cars were thrown from the track with great violence, breaking the ribs of the engineer, and killing, or wounding and scalding, from thirty to forty first-class

The citizens of Joliet promptly rendered all the assistance in their power to the wounded. Physicians who were present report that at least ten or twelve of the scalded will die within twenty-

At the latest accounts all the sufferers had been renoved to a large stone building on Scott-st., in the village of Joliet, and the employes of the Railroad Company, as well as the people of the village, were using every effort to alleviate their sufferings.

It appears that when the engine was thrown off the track, the two forward passenger cars were thrown on top of it, and the steam escaping was driven with tremendous force through the dense mass of human beings packed closely among the wrecks of the dars.

The engineer, Mr. W. G. Brown, was fearful scalded. His brother, acting as fireman, had both his loos broken. A gentleman named Carpenter, from Pougkeepsie, , was terribly burned and scalded.

J. W. Albien, of Monroe County, Ohio, was also badly scalded. Sarah Albion, of Monroe Co., Ohio, burned and scalded. Mrs. Cox, of Washington Co , Iowa, was severely

Catherine Laughlin, of Washington Co., Iowa, was also very seriously injured.

Margaret Laughlin, of Gettysburg, Penn., was also among those who were seriously if not fatally We have been unable to learn the names of the other sufferers, but are assured, on what we have reason to believe is respectable authority, that the whole number of passengers who were seriously wounded is not under forty. We shall endeavor to get more full details without delay.

The conductor of the train, Mr. Van Burket, escaped with but slight injury. When the messenger left the scene of disaster, (ten o'clock yesterday forenoon,) several of those who were scalded remained insensible, and others were writhing in their last agonies. J. M. Carpenter, of Canandaigua, one of the in-jured by the Rock Island Railroad disaster, died this
